

NJRR Member
Welcome

Welcome to the NJRR team.

Please take a few minutes and review the www.njrr.us website. This is important because it outlines who we are, what we do and most importantly, our code of ethics.

Our team communicates via Facebook Messenger; Therefore, I have added you to the following NJRR Facebook messenger chat groups.

1. NJRR Open Discussion: This is an open forum group about any topic except, Sex, religion, politics or hate.
2. NJRR Missions: This is where members post NJRR missions. It is NOT a chat group and all questions regarding a mission are to be done in the NJRR Open Discussion chat.
3. NJRR (Yellow vest team): This chat is only for members who have met the requirements to wear the NJRR yellow vest.

As a member, you receive additional discounts from North American Rescue. If you plan to purchase from them, please email the Director at director@njrr.us so that we may ensure that they have you on record.
